

Foreword

In the summer of 2014 the Journal of Medical Law and Ethics will be publishing a special edition on 'Issues of Faith and Belief and the Donation of Body Parts for Transplantation and Research' as part of the David Price Memorial Seminar Series held at De Montfort University in 2013. This special edition is exclusively about organ transplantation, donation and the ethical issues that underpin this very special and controversial area of law.

Lisa Cherkassky